

FALL ARTIST MARKET

The Atlanta School is beginning preparations for its Fall Artist Market. We would like to invite you to participate in the 2007 Artist Market. Our Artist Market is an excellent opportunity for artists in the community to come together and share their talents and their work with people of all ages. If you have participated in the past you know it is a fun day and we want to thank-you for your past support of this fundraiser. Without you, this Artist market would not be possible. We are already working hard to publicize this event.

Whether you're a potter, painter, fiber artist, jeweler, dancer, magician or musician - child or adult - we have a place for you. There will be food, children's' activities, live entertainment, raffles, and a silent auction. Please come out and spend the day with The Atlanta School. The key dates and times for this years event are:

The Atlanta School
Fall Artist Market
November 3rd, 2007
Advertised time - 10:00 AM thru 4:00 PM
Artist set-up begins at 9:00 AM*
Registration Deadline: Sunday September 30th

In addition to exposing your art to the community, your participation is also a great way to contribute to the Art Department of The Atlanta School where our goal is to provide a safe environment for young people to work together to create and practice artistic skills. Our students, in collaborations with Painter Susan Lambert and clay Artist Ana Vizurraga are learning the value of a unified effort by combining their individual strengths toward the common purpose of creating works of fine art. Your contribution to the School's Art program would be in your participation in the market and a financial donation of 15% of your sales for the day.

Attached is a response form to participate in the market. You may mail the form to us, fax it to us, or include all the necessary information in an Email to us. We like to keep it easy for you!

*Earlier times are available if necessary; please include that information on the artist reply form.
